Local Rule 110 Electronic Filing of Court Documents

110.01 Effective August 24, 2011, the Administrative Order Regarding Electronic Filing of Court Documents, and any subsequent amendments thereto, shall govern the practice and procedures to be followed regarding the filing of court documents in all civil cases in the General Division of this Court.

110.02 Documents filed electronically shall conform substantially to the requirements of these Local Rules and to the requirements of the most current edition of the Court’s Administrative Order Regarding Electronic Filing of Court Documents. The filing party or, if represented, counsel, shall be responsible for determining the most current version of the Administrative Order and complying with it.

110.03 To the extent facsimile filings are affected by the most current version of the Court’s Administrative Order Regarding Electronic Filing of Court Documents, Local Rules 108 and 109 are superseded.

110.04 Upon adoption of an “Administrative Order Regarding Electronic Filing of Court Documents” specifically applicable to criminal cases, said Order shall govern the practice and procedures to be followed regarding the filing of court documents in all criminal cases as of the effective date set forth in the Order.
