Debating the Patriot Act

Chuck Rosenberg, chief of staff to the Deputy Attorney General of the United States; Jeff Ganso, legal director, ACLU of Ohio, Sponsored by: Fireproof Records Center

On October 26, 2001, President Bush signed the USA Patriot Act into law. This law provides for sweeping new powers for both domestic law enforcement and international intelligence agencies. Some argue that in doing so we have eliminated the checks and balances that previously gave courts the opportunity to ensure that these powers were not abused. Join us for a powerful debate about the new law and its provisions.

Cartoonist Tony Cochran: I'm Far Too Young to Look This Hot!

Tony Cochran, cartoonist and creator of Agnes Moderated by: Dennison Griffith, president, Columbus College of Art & Design

CMC is pleased to welcome Columbus' own internationally syndicated cartoonist Tony Cochran with his debut book, Agnes, I'm Far Too Young to Look This Hot! Cochran will introduce Agnes, a bespectacled, floppy footed girl who views the world with wide-eyed enthusiasm. Cochran studied art at CCAD and Wright State University. For 15 years, he supplemented his artistic career with work as an auto body mechanic – and then inspiration hit! Agnes now appears in papers across the country.

Next Wednesday at CMC • June 23

OSU Alumni Association:

New Leader, New Goals – A Whole New Ballgame!

Archie Griffin, president and CEO,
The Ohio State University Alumni Association

Sponsored by:

Taking the reins of the second largest alumni association in the country is no small task even for the country's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin. For the OSU Alumni Association's board of directors, the search to replace 30-year veteran President/CEO Dan Heinlen stretched around the globe but ended just across the Olentangy River.

Hiring OSU icon Archie Griffin to head the association was a no-brainer. But was it? Archie must rise above his athletic image to guide an organization with 120,000 plus members worldwide, a $7-million annual budget, a staff of 65 and a 15-member volunteer board. Although completely autonomous from the university itself, the alumni association must work hand-in-hand with OSU's leadership.

After six months in the role, Archie will share his vision, goals, priorities and dreams for the OSU Alumni Association as it fulfills its mission to 'Stay Connected, Make
Ohio State Stronger.' Join us to find out how "Go Bucks" has taken on new meanings for central Ohio.

About Us...

CMC firmly believes in the free expression of all ideas and the benefits of an open exchange of information. CMC is non-partisan and takes no positions on issues.

Anyone can join! From the beginning, there have been no barriers to membership and all forums have welcomed the general public. Diversity, both in programming and membership, is one of the many benefits of being involved in CMC. Everyone is welcome.

Each forum is an hour-long program that starts with a brief introduction followed by 25-30 minutes of speaker comments. The final half hour is filled with unfiltered, unrehearsed questions from the audience.

Columbus Nugget

The blackest chapter in the former Ohio Penitentiary's history is the Easter Monday fire of April 21, 1930 that took 322 lives. Many died because authorities were afraid to unlock the cells and release them. Young Ohio National Guardsmen were called to duty for the grisly task of finding the bodies and taking them to a makeshift morgue in the horticulture building at the Ohio State Fairgrounds.
