Monday, OCTOBER 17TH, noon to 1:15 at the Athletic Club of Columbus

Columbus School Board Debate

Moderated by: Sharron Kornegay, public affairs manager Ross Products

On Tuesday, November 8, 2005, Columbus residents will elect three School Board officials. The six candidates on the ballot are Barbara Bryson, Bill Buckel, Betty Drummond, Andrew Ginther, W. Carlton Weddington and Michael Wiles

Don't miss this Columbus Metropolitan Club debate as candidates discuss the important issues facing our community and how they plan to respond. In CMC tradition, candidates will field unfiltered questions from the audience. CMC political debates are always popular and space is limited, so be sure to make your reservations early.

Due to the number of candidates, we will extend our format for this debate by 15 minutes: we will start the debate at 12:15 p.m. and adjourn promptly at 1:30 p.m.

Wednesday, OCTOBER 19TH

Sandra Pianalto, President & CEO, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Everything from investment plans to vacation plans, candidate choices to entrée choices revolves around one final thing: the economy, its current state, its projected state, its emotional state and its real state.

In a special presentation for the Columbus Metropolitan Club, Sandra Pianalto, President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland will share her unique perspectives on the current state of the economy. In her role, Pianalto sits on the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMA). Chaired by Alan Greenspan, the FOMA formulates U.S. monetary policy.

An eloquent, articulate and gracious speaker, Pianalto opens an elusive window into the mindset and workings of the people and process that shape our United States economy.

This is a MUST ATTEND CMC forum!
