About Us...

CMC firmly believes in the free expression of all ideas and the benefits of an open exchange of information. CMC is non-partisan and takes no positions on issues.

Anyone can join! From the beginning, there have been no barriers to membership and all forums have welcomed the general public. Diversity, both in programming and membership, is one of the many benefits of being involved in CMC. Everyone is welcome.

Each forum is an hour-long program that starts with a brief introduction followed by 25-30 minutes of speaker comments. The final half hour is filled with unfiltered, unrehearsed questions from the audience.

Strength of the Individual in Making Social Change

"Individual acts of conscience often create more sweeping change than the official acts of large institutions. There are moments when those with the least power, wealth, privilege or rank, those who may be feeling more alone than they've ever felt in their lifetime, can have a greater impact than could possibly be imagined..."

Founder and Executive Director of "Share Our Strength"

Chrissy Gephardt Addresses CMC

CMC President Suzy Swanson, Speaker Chrissy Gephardt, Lynn Greer of The Greer Foundation

"A key GOP strategy in the 2004 election was to go after faithful voters. They know that a disciplined minority is the majority."

"In the 2004 election, gays represented approximately 4% of the voting population. 25% voted for George Bush - that's about one million votes and has a tremendous impact in a close election."
