Downtown Housing Roundtable

In Partnership with Columbus Landmarks Foundation

Kyle Katz, Buggyworks,; John Rosenberger, Captiol South Community Urban Redevelopment Corporation; Larry Ruben, Plaza Properties. Moderated by Paul Bonneville, Columbus RetroMeters.com

Mayor Coleman's goal of 10,000 new downtown living units in 10 years has spurred the largest concentration of residential building projects and new downtown residents in nearly a century. Each new project has a significant impact on the city and is part of a growing network off new businesses, new entertainment, new spaces and revived landscapes in the core city. Urban Columbus is being reborn and rediscovered.

The annual Columbus Landmarks Foundation City Hop has grown over 7 years, drawing thousands of people curious about living in a vibrant city environ and equally curious about those who are making that decision. The popularity of this event, set this year for June 16-17, emphasizes the burgeoning interest in metropolitan areas across the country and certainly in Columbus.

In his role as leader of the Capitol South CURC, John Rosenberger, has played a pivotal role in guiding this renaissance. His overview of the redevelopment will dovetail into specific experiences of downtown developers Kyle Katz and Larry Ruben. Paul Bonneville is an enthusiastic newcomer with his "retrometro" website that touts all things urban will be an apt moderator.

Jurgensen to Launch Chase Excellence in Leadership Series

Jerry Jurgensen

Title Sponsor JP Morgan Chase and The Columbus Metropolitan Club in cooperation with Leadership Columbus are launching an exciting new series of forums focusing on the many aspects of the nebulous concept of "leadership."

On June 14, Nationwide CEO Jerry Jurgensen will be the first leader featured in this exciting series. Spotlighting Columbus' corporate, civic and political leaders, the forums will explore each person's passions, frustrations, hopes and vision for our community. In true CMC fashion, forum audiences will continue the conversation with their questions.

Over the twelve-forum, three-year series, well-known local personality and former television anchor Gail Hogan will conduct an informal interview with each leader on stage at the CMC luncheon forums.

Last Week at CMC, Wednesday, MAY 24

Artful Leaders Paint Colorful Short North

Moderator Mary Stuessy, Panelist David Hammond, CMC President Suzy Swanson & Sponsor Susan Eichinger of Fireproof Records Center; Front: Panelists Sherrie Hawk, Sharon O'Brien & Sandy Wood

"The Short North showcases the soul of Columbus and its image – the image of Columbus is a city in the midwest that has an extraordinary quality of life."

Sandy Wood

"We have to seize the current momentum and make the Short North even more of a focal point for all of Ohio."

Mary Stuessy
