Ohio's Troops: Here and Abroad

All states' militias have played an unprecedented role in the War in Iraq. Wayt will discuss Ohio's preparedness and response to this historic demand.

Wayt assumed the duties as the Adjutant General, Joint Force Headquarters - Ohio on 1 July 2004. He is a member of the Governor's cabinet and is responsible for the operation of the Adjutant General's Department and the military preparedness of the Ohio Militia. The organized militia consists of the Ohio Army National Guard, Ohio Air National Guard, Ohio Military Reserve, and Ohio Naval Militia, totaling more than 18,000 personnel. He supervises four flag officer heads of these components and one deputy director in the day-to-day operation and management of the fiscal, personnel, equipment, and real property resources of these military organizations and state agencies.

Major General Wayt's career began in 1975. He was a Distinguished Military Graduate from The Ohio State University Reserve Officer Training Corps program and was commissioned in 1975 as an Air Defense Artillery Officer. He has commanded and has held staff officer assignments at all levels from battery, battalion, group, brigade and Joint Force Headquarters. Recent assignments include the Commanding General, 73rd Troop Command (Brigade), Commander, 145th Regiment (Regional Training Institute), Chief of Staff, Joint Force Headquarters - Ohio, and Deputy Chief of Staff, Plans, Operations, Training, and Military Support.

Major General Gregory Wayt
