Dear Friends of CMC,

I am writing to ask you for a gift to the Columbus Metropolitan Club. This is a time of the year when every good cause asks you for your support. I hope you will consider a contribution to the CMC Founders Fund – and make a gift to the future of the Columbus Metropolitan Club.

Shah M. Hasan

Let's remember that CMC was founded in a courageous act of social transformation. Outraged by inequity, thirteen women came together and thought: Enough! Let's build our own more inclusive club! Thanks to their legacy, today over 800 community leaders have joined CMC for discussion and debate. Our members joined for the friendship and fellowship, and they gather for conversation, and information and ideas relevant to our lives and our work, here and around the world. Our members joined because they care about their community.

CMC organizes a forum almost every week – and sometimes twice a week. Our membership is at our highest, and we've had more people attend our forums and programs than at any time ever. We deserved to be proud of this success.

As we continue to envision our future – and we will have many more occasions to discuss this together – it is time to ask how we can catch the spirit of our Founders and more actively engage our community? How can we come together to listen and learn – and then as CMC leaders – come together to help with lasting positive change in the things that matter most to our community?

I have proposed that every dollar you give to the Founders Fund go towards building a fund to sustain the Columbus Metropolitan Club into the future. I invite you to honor the Founders for starting an organization that promotes our civic learning and our service to the people and causes we care about. I hope you will consider a gift to the Founders Fund.

Gratefully,
Shah M. Hasan, Ph.D
President
