Columbus: Identity TBD (To Be Discovered)

Capitol Club, 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Moderated by: Bill Faust, Partner and Chief Strategy Officer, Ologie

Panel: Susan Merryman, Vice President of Marketing and Communications, Columbus Chamber;
Mike Reed, Couchfire Collective; Jeff Earnheart, Sr. Recruiter, Asset Management, JP Morgan Chase

For many across the US, Columbus means OSU football. For many, it's a nice friendly city in Ohio somewhere. For most people, it doesn't bring any image to mind. Is no image better than a bad image? Why can't Columbus, the 16th largest city in the country, take its place in the national psychic? And, what should Columbus' image be? And, who's in charge of figuring that out? And, once we determine – or discover? – what we want to be, who's in charge of marketing that image to the U.S. and the world?

Mike Reed, a local Indie artist with Couchfire Collective, Susan Merryman with the Columbus Chamber and Jeff Earnheart, Sr. Recruiter, Asset Management, JP Morgan Chase will discuss who Columbus is and how their organizations are currently marketing our great city.

CHASE Excellence in Leadership Series

A Conversation with Yvette McGee Brown

Interviewed by Gail Hogan, Owner/Host, Showcase Columbus

Driving north on Fourth Street, you can't miss a three-story-size picture of Yvette McGee Brown on the side of the YWCA building downtown. The smile and the personality radiate from that wall just like they do when Brown is chairing a meeting of the OSU Alumni Association Board of Trustees or cheering on one of the young girls who frequent the Y.

What might not be quite as evident in this billboard is the stern, business-like manner that has served her well

Yvette McGee Brown

President,
The Center for Child and Family
Advocacy at Children's Hospital

as a former Franklin County Common Pleas Judge and in her current role as President for The Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Children's. Brown's countless leadership roles on the boards of the YWCA, United Way of Franklin County, Dave Thomas Foundation, I KNOW I CAN and many others have earned her a reputation for being committed to her community.

In one of CMC's popular Chase Excellence in Leadership forums, Gail Hogan will quiz Yvette McGee Brown about what motivates her to devote so much of her time and talent to invest herself in these efforts and how do we learn from her spirit of leadership?

Special Preview — SPECIAL FRIDAY FORUM!

Democratic Primary Debate

Cindy Lazarus & John O'Grady for Franklin County Commissioner

Cindy Lazarus

The Franklin County Board of Commissioners works with an annual budget of $1.25 billion to help enrich our community, set the strategic direction, and tackle its needs. Cindy Lazarus and John O'Grady are competing in the March 4 primary election for the Democratic nomination to run for County Commissioner in the November general election.

O'Grady was elected Franklin County Clerk of Courts in 2000. He was re-elected in 2004. Prior to his service as Clerk of Courts, he worked as an administrator for

John O'Grady

State Treasurer Mary Ellen Withrow for nine years.

Cindy Lazarus is the President & CEO of the YWCA Columbus. Her career includes service as a Franklin County Court of Appeals Judge and ten years as a member of Columbus City Council, serving 3 years as president.

Don't miss the squaring off of O'Grady and Lazarus before the primary to give their platforms on current issues surrounding the County Commissioner office and their opinion of the Commission's role.
