Tracy Shearer on Maternity Leave

Tracy Shearer began maternity leave on August 15, in preparation for the birth of her and her husband Matt's expected daughter, Lillian Grace. Tracy will return to her position as Director of Member Relations in mid October.

In Tracy's absence, Amber Moyer, a student at OSU majoring in Political Science will be handling reservations and other member questions. Kimmer Callahan, CMC's Director of Public Relations and Marketing will assist with Member Committee activities this fall.

We wish Tracy well as she and her family welcome their newest family member, AND our newest CMC member! We'll introduce you to Lillian at our earliest opportunity!

Help Wanted!

CMC is looking for an energetic person to volunteer 15-20 hours per week to help with clerical work. Availability on Wednesday from about 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., computer competency with Word, Microsoft Outlook and cheerful disposition are a must! Compensation includes a one-year CMC membership and forum lunch on Wednesdays. Interested or know someone who might be? Please contact Jane at 464-3220.

RECAP - AUGUST 15

The Seneca: New Life for a Grand Building

Doug Motz, president of the Columbus Historical Society shared the storied history of the grand Seneca Hotel. Who knew so many important people stayed (and found refuge) in this glorious building.

Joe Blundo, columnist for The Columbus Dispatch, joined Doug to present his tongue-in-cheek column that he had written in response to the Seneca's rebirth.

Special thanks to Campus Apartments, Inc. for their hospitality.
