FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2008

Warhol at the Wex

Sherri Geldin, Executive Director of the Wexner Center provides a special look at the exclusive US presentation of Warhol: Other Voices,

Other Rooms, and tells her story of how she captured this coveted exhibition for Columbus!

Other Voices, Other Rooms sheds new light on the celebrated pop artist and focuses on the ideas at the heart of his work: embracing consumer culture, exploring sexual identity, challenging social conventions, and erasing distinctions between high and low culture.

The Wexner Center is proud to host the only U.S. presentation of this spectacular exhibition featuring films, videos, paintings, drawings, prints, wallpaper, installations, objects, seldom heard audio recordings, and extraordinary archival material. Other Voices, Other Rooms opens in Columbus just after what would have been the late artist's 80th birthday (in August 2008).

Only $10 for Members/$15 for guests and includes breakfast.
