Gary R. Heminger is executive vice president - Downstream of Marathon Oil Corporation and serves as a member of Marathon's Executive Committee. He joined the Company in 1975 and was appointed to his current position in July 2005. "Downstream" refers to all petroleum activities from the processing of refining crude oil into petroleum products, distribution, marketing and transportation.

Heminger is also president of Marathon Petroleum Company LLC (MPC), (formerly Marathon Ashland Petroleum LLC (MAP)), a wholly owned subsidiary of Marathon. He assumed responsibility as president of MPC in September 2001.

Native of Tiffin, Ohio, Heminger earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Tiffin University in 1976 while already employed by Marathon Oil Company in Findlay, Ohio. He earned a master's degree in business administration from the University of Dayton, Ohio, in 1982.

Featuring Gary Heminger, Executive Vice President, Marathon Oil, Houston, TX

Based in Houston, Marathon operates around the globe and is among the world's leading integrated energy companies and fifth largest refiner in the US. With reported 2007 year end revenues of $64,552 million, the company has approximately 6,000 retail locations in 18 states.

Its vision is to be recognized as a pacesetter in creating sustainable value growth through innovative energy solutions and unique partnerships. Marathon's exploration activities are focused on adding profitable production to existing core areas (United States, Equatorial Guinea, Libya and the North Sea) and developing potential new core areas (Angola and Indonesia).
